

National Conference Calls to Discuss the Evaluation of the Environmental Justice Collaborative Model

Periodically, the IWG Evaluation Teams hosts facilitated conference calls to gather feedback from evaluation experts from across different government agencies, universities, nongovernmental organizations, and consulting firms and from project participants. The First National Conference Call was held on April 4, 2001. Information regarding the First National Conference Call is included in Appendix A. The IWG Evaluation Team intends to host a second national conference call in early September. This meeting will be used to generate feedback regarding the initial evaluation findings.
